Addendum #2 –Cedar Park Code of Ordinances
Article 9.06: Revolving Door Policy

Please note the below Cedar Park Code of Ordinances, Article 9.06, prohibiting former elected officials and certain employees from participating on contracts with the City within two (2) years after leaving office or employment, and in the event of a violation, providing for disqualification of a statement of qualifications.

ARTICLE 9.06 REVOLVING DOOR POLICY

- (a) For a period of two years after leaving office, a former mayor, councilmember, city manager, or department director, or anyone acting on behalf of such persons, shall not solicit, propose, or lobby on a contract with the city or enter into a contract with the city for the sale to the city of any goods or services other than real estate.
- (b) For a period of two years after leaving office, a former mayor, councilmember, city manager, or department director, or anyone acting on behalf of such persons, may not sell or lease any real estate to the city unless the city council has designated the property for acquisition and would otherwise have to acquire the property through its power of eminent domain.
- (c) In the event that a former mayor, councilmember, city manager, or department director owns unique personal property or provides a unique personal service or goods and the city council finds that such property, service, or goods is beneficial, whether by character or price, to the city's municipal government, then the city council may waive the prohibition set forth in subsection (a) by resolution.

(d) No former mayor, councilmember, city manager, department director, or other employee shall use any confidential information to which he has had access by virtue of his official capacity and which has not been made public concerning the property, operations, policies, or affairs of the city, to advance any personal financial interest.

(e) Any bid, proposal, contract offer, or lease offer submitted by a former mayor, councilmember, city manager, or department director, or anyone acting on behalf of such persons, in violation of subsections (a) or (b) shall be disqualified.

(f) The foregoing subsections are cumulative, and not exclusive, of state law, the city charter, and any other municipal ordinance.
